Day 3) Hotel Tonnara di Trabia - Palermo - Monreale - Hotel Tonnara di Trabia (85km)

Today we recommend a visit to the lively city of Palermo, capital of the island. Even Goethe was stunned by the beauty of this colorful seaside metropolis, located in the "Golden Basin", the plain that surrounds the city ranging from the mountains to the Tyrrhenian Sea. It is called "golden" because of the citrus plantations that surround Palermo: when the fruits ripen, the territory takes on a golden color and a soothing aroma of orange blossoms wafts in the air.

Magnificent buildings and towering monuments tell the history and the culture of the Arabs, the Normans and the Spaniards. The majestic Cathedral will leave you speechless, as well as the Palace of the Normans with its beautiful Palatin Chapel. Have fun exploring all the ancient open-air markets that fill the historical center with their colors, their sounds and their aromas.

If you head west, you will discover the beautiful Benedictine monastery of Monreale, the biggest religious building of its age, built as a sign of triumph over the Islamic religion. The interior of the Cathedral is entirely covered in golden mosaics.

Dinner and overnight stay in the Hotel Tonnara di Trabia.

Day 4) Hotel Tonnara di Trabia - Temple of Segesta - Marsala salt ponds - Hotel Admeto/Althea (213km)

Today's recommended schedule comprehends a trip to the salt ponds of Marsala, as well as a visit to the ancient Greek Temple of Segesta.

The first one is to Agrigento's Temple Valley, where you can stumble upon the most beautiful and best-preserved Doric-Greek temple in the entire world.

The other recommended site is the Roman Villa of Piazza Armerina. It is a late-Roman mansion that stores an outstanding collection of mosaics that depict the Roman domain in Sicily and the daily lifestyle of the people from that period.

You have probably never heard of this place, but do not be deceived by appearances: this is a wonderful village of fishermen, that manages to perfectly balance tourism and authenticity. Wander through the village and feel the marine breeze on your skin!

You cannot miss Siracusa. "Give me a place to stand, and I shall move the Earth" - with this quote, attributed to Archimedes, dive into the 2.500 years of Grecian dominion in Sicily, and visit the archaeological area, the Cathedral and Ortigia, the small island upon which the historical centre of Siracusa is built.
